

Craftsbury Outdoor Camp at Hosmer Point

Camp Rules

- Under no circumstances should a camper or staff person be in the possession of any of the following: alcohol, drugs, tobacco products, matches, lighters or weapons.
- Campers may not leave camp grounds without Director or Parent permission and must remain in their cabins after lights out.
- Any vandalism or theft of camp property will not be tolerated. Campers will be required to correct any damage and/or will be charged for repairs.
- Any harassment, hazing, or teasing with the intent to belittle, scare, offend or harm is unacceptable at camp.
- The use of vulgar language will not be tolerated and may result in disciplinary action.
- The individual boys camp and girls camp cabins must be respected and those of the opposite gender are not allowed to visit cabins.
- The use of phones, video, computer and internet devices are strictly prohibited in camp.

Having carefully read the above guidelines and rules for behavior while at camp, the camper and camper's parent and/or guardians hereby signify their acceptance and assent to the above terms by signing below.

ASSUMPTION OF RISK AND RELEASE OF LIABILITY

In consideration of my being allowed to participate in camp activities offered by the Craftsbury Outdoor Camp at Hosmer Point, I acknowledge and agree as follows: I hope to enjoy the many experiences afforded to children at the camp, including but not limited to swimming, bicycling, soccer, boating, hiking, working with animals and construction tools, etc. I acknowledge that these and other camp activities pose inherent risks of injury to the participant, and I hereby agree to accept the dangers inherent in all of the activities offered by Hosmer Point. I further agree to waive any and all claims I may have for injuries that may result from my participation in activities, insofar as the dangers are an obvious and necessary part of the activity (Title 12 V.S.A. 1037). I further agree that this contract will be governed by the laws of the State of Vermont.

Having carefully read the foregoing and understanding it to be a legally binding release and indemnity agreement, camper, and camper's parents/guardians signify their acceptance of the above terms and conditions by signing below.
